Cristian Contreras is a Senior Associate at Kidder Mathews with a primary focus on industrial properties. He is well-equipped with an understanding of market trends within Southern California, property valuation, and the intricacy of negotiation.

His interest and knowledge of logistics, transportation, and supply chains makes him an asset to his clients and allows him to serve the needs of industrial users from a holistic perspective.

After obtaining a bachelor's degree in global supply chain management from California State University, Northridge, he worked as a brokerage assistant for a boutique industrial brokerage company, KBC Advisors. During this time, Cristian gained immense knowledge regarding the industrial property class.

Cristian prides himself on using extensive market research and data to help clients make the best-informed real estate decisions. In addition, Cristian strives to create meaningful relationships with clients and industry professionals to ensure the success of everyone he crosses paths with. In his free time, Cristian enjoys spending time with family and watching sports.
