Cameron Shafer joined Kidder Mathews' brokerage division in 2013, where he focuses on both tenant and landlord representation.

Cameron specializes in tenant and landlord representation, as well as investment sales. Cameron's team has completed more than $1B+ in transaction volume, serving a diverse clientele of both sophisticated corporate users to seed-backed startups. Cameron expertly guides clients through complex real estate challenges with professionalism and discretion. His tailored approach ensures clients receive comprehensive support for their unique real estate objectives, fostering long-term partnerships built on trust and results.

Cameron is a San Francisco native, splitting his time between the technology-booming city and the Napa Valley, where his family runs Shafer Vineyards. He explores all that the Bay Area has to offer through year-round trail running, skiing, and cycling and regularly participates in ultra-endurance events.
